Everyday Homes Wins Coveted HIA CSR NSW Housing Award

Everyday Homes Pty Ltd celebrated their success at the 2011 HIA CSR NSW Housing Awards on Saturday night.

The Hoxton Park company won the 2011 HIA CSR NSW Home of the Year (partnered by CSR); Custom Built Home of the Year and Custom Built Home Under $2 Million (partnered by Hagemeyer Appliances); and Bathroom of the Year and Large Bathroom Over 5 sqm (partnered by Argent Australia) categories for their Sandy Point project.

Judges said, "this house exhibits excellent quality of workmanship and attention to detail with an excellent relationship between indoor and outdoor spaces. The environmental features include low e-glass, recycled water and the design of the building is oriented towards north. A striking feature of the home is the finish of the spiral staircase in the entry which is immaculate and sets the tone for the rest of the building."

"The contemporary bathroom showcases state-of-the-art trends in fittings and materials. A creative utilization of space has produced an outstanding and stunning result."

Congratulating Everyday Homes Pty Ltd on such an outstanding achievement, HIA's NSW Executive Director, David Bare, said the awards were a tremendous display of the housing industry's capacity, innovation and resilience in tough times.

"It is encouraging to see that in challenging market conditions HIA's builders and designers have maintained their commitment to excellence. The high standard of entries shows that support for these awards has yet again been remarkable. Each year the bar is raised higher making the judging process all the more difficult."

"Major winners tonight can look forward to progressing to HIA's national awards next year and we wish them every success."

The awards were held in front of a sell-out black-tie audience at the Sydney Convention Centre. Special guests included Minister for Planning and Infrastructure Hon Brad Hazzard; Hon Matthew Mason-Cox (representing the Premier); Brian Doherty, General Manager NSW, CSR Bricks and Roofing and HIA's NSW President, Martin Walsh.

This year's theme was A Night in Paris. Guests were entertained by the dazzling Nikki Bennett Moulin Rouge Show. MC for the evening was Karl Stefanovic, Australian Gold Logie Award winner and co-host of Channel Nine's breakfast show, Today.

The Association's showcase awards night recognise excellence in housing innovation, material selection, design, construction and services to the NSW residential building industry.

Housing Industry Association (HIA) is the leading industry association in the Australian residential building sector, supporting the businesses and interests of builders, contractors, manufacturers, suppliers, building professionals and business partners.
